Advising Sheet for Major in American Studies (2015-16)

Core courses (20 credits)
Students majoring in American Studies may not substitute courses from other disciplines for the 4 core courses focused on developing interdisciplinary methods: II AMST 210 or II AMST 250 or IH AMST 248; AMST 350; AMST 390/490 and AMST 495.

Upper-level ISP courses may not be used to fulfill core requirements in the American Studies Major.

My five core courses are:

1) II AMST 210: Introduction to American Studies
2) II AMST 250: Interpreting American Cultures
3) AMST 350 ______
4) AMST 495 ______
5) AMST 390 Critical Approaches or AMST 490: Advanced Special Topics ______

Area Courses (20 credits)
Please see list of eligible history courses in the description of the major in the College Catalog or ask your advisor whether a course will count in areas below

My two courses in American History are: _____ and _____
My one course in American Literature is ______
My two courses in Arts and Humanities and/or in Humanities and Social Sciences: _____ and _____
I met my Differing Cultural Perspectives Requirement by taking: _____

Integrative Studies (40 credits)
Foundations Course (8 credits)

ITW _____ (complete 1st or 2nd semester)
IQL _____ (complete within first 3 semesters)

Arts & Humanities: 3 courses/3 different disciplines (12 credits)

Humanities (IH) (Modern Language) ______
Arts (IA) ______
Arts or Humanities ______

Science & Social Science: 3 courses/3 different disciplines (12)

Natural Science (IN) ______
Social Science (IS) ______
Social Science (IS) or Natural Science (IN) ______
One course in IA, IH, IS, IN, or II (may not repeat a discipline) ______
My 2 300 or 400-level ISP courses are (completed after 24 credits at 100-200-level) are ________ and __________